

International Young Governance Professionals Summit
June 22-24, 2017 • San Diego, CA
Sheraton San Diego Hotel & Marina

Join the IYGP in a joint event with the International Policy Governance Association's annual conference. Learn, network and share ideas on development and innovation in corporate and non-profit governance.

Join us for our three-day programme which enables you to:

- Learn about how a board of directors works in a variety of organizational types.
- Gain tools to improve your effectiveness if you are already a governance professional or board director and learn about the variety of professional roles in governance.
- Meet and learn from a wide variety of governance experts and peers from both the IYGP and International Policy Governance Association.
- Take advantage of our mentor match programme to support your learning.

Register online here.

Regular Registration Rate: $225 USD (February 1 - April 30)
Late Registration Rate: $250 USD (May 1 - May 31)
*Pricing includes all meals and evening receptions

This event is organised alongside and with support from the International Policy Governance Association (IPGA) Annual Conference.

Twitter: @YoungGovPros
Website: www.iygp-summit.com

DAY 1: Thursday June 22, 2017

8:30-10:00	Registration
10:00-4:30 (including lunch from 12:00-1:00 and an afternoon break)	Introduction to Policy Governance Presenters: Eric Craymer and Sue Radwan of Partners in Policy Governance. An interactive and enlightening introduction to Policy Governance for board members and managers. A perfect primer or refresher for those who want to learn about working with the Policy Governance System to fulfil their organizations' full potential for making a difference. Whether you are board member or manager considering using the Policy Governance system, or your board is already using the system and you want to get-up-to-speed, or you simply want to refresh your knowledge and skills - this one-day workshop is for you. OR Ownership under the microscope Presenters: Karen Fryday-Field and Caroline Oliver Join this day-long enquiry to deepen your understanding of how boards can recognise who their owners/stakeholders are and the implications for your board's leadership.
6:00-7:30	Evening reception - drinks and canapés

DAY 2: Friday June 23, 2017

7:15-8:15	Breakfast
8:30-8:45	Introduction from IPGA
8:45-9.45	Keynote address: Linking the futures of your organization and your community by Dr. Victoria Hurth, Associate Professor in Marketing and Sustainable Business at Plymouth University, UK Dr. Hurth has been conducting research and consulting on how organisations can become a force for sustainable global wellbeing for over 15 years. She will bring her experience with organizations from across all sectors to bear in challenging you to think about your organization as part of dynamic environments that relies on you, and impacts you, through rapid feedback as well as emergent, longer-term and unexpected social, technical and environmental consequences. She will ask you consider the implications of a world in which all organizations are bound together within a broader interconnected system.
9:45-10:05	Break
10:05-11:25 (choice from three sessions)	<table border="1" style="width: 100%; border-collapse: collapse;"> <tr> <td style="width: 33%; vertical-align: top;"> Board support – who needs what? Part presentation and part discussion, this session will help you think through the best arrangements for your organization. </td> <td style="width: 33%; vertical-align: top;"> Workshop with Keynote speaker An opportunity to further explore the links between your organization and your community with our keynote speaker. </td> <td style="width: 33%; vertical-align: top;"> Powering sustainability through diversity How diversity can fuel your future and what you can be doing about it now. </td> </tr> </table>	Board support – who needs what? Part presentation and part discussion, this session will help you think through the best arrangements for your organization.	Workshop with Keynote speaker An opportunity to further explore the links between your organization and your community with our keynote speaker.	Powering sustainability through diversity How diversity can fuel your future and what you can be doing about it now.
Board support – who needs what? Part presentation and part discussion, this session will help you think through the best arrangements for your organization.	Workshop with Keynote speaker An opportunity to further explore the links between your organization and your community with our keynote speaker.	Powering sustainability through diversity How diversity can fuel your future and what you can be doing about it now.

11:35-12:25	Open forums - an opportunity for Board Members, CEO's, Board Administrators, International Young Governance Professionals and Consultants to break into separate groups and discuss issues of mutual interest.
12:25-1:25	Lunch and chance to visit exhibits and bookstore
1:35-2:55 (choice from three sessions)	Ownership – the touchstone Where the source of your board's authority comes from and how to connect with it for: designing your future; ensuring your accountability; and creating your future leadership.	Designing Board Policies for Organizational Sustainability How can board policy-making be used to increase your organization's sustainability? What are the key issues and how should they be addressed?	Using Technology to Enrich Governance - What's Possible Now and What's Coming This is a chance to find out more about how your board could be making better use of technology now and what is likely to be possible in the future.
2:55-3:15	Break
3:15-4:35 (choice from three sessions)	Crafting Policies as Controls Find out how Policy Governance principles and practice can transform your board's words into empowering and meaningful controls that drive organizational performance and limit risk.	Transparency, Privacy and Prudence - Walking the Tightrope Transparency has become a byword for governance excellence. But what does it mean in practice when you must balance it with real live issues that require confidentiality and prudence?	Sharing Success – sharing and discussion of tips and tools that have helped individual leaders This is an open forum for the sharing of leadership challenges and triumphs. This session will be facilitated but the floor is yours!
4:45-5:45	Break
6:00-10:00	Conference Dinner

DAY 3: Saturday June 24, 2017

7:15-8:15	Breakfast
8:30-9:30	Keynote Panel: To the brink and back – using Policy Governance for survival and renewal A Panel Discussion lead by A. J. Crabill, Deputy Commissioner of Governance, Texas Education Agency, USA Learn from Board members and CEO's who have used Policy Governance to navigate challenges to their organizations' futures.
9:40-11:00 (choice from three sessions)	Monitoring and Evaluation – The CEO Perspective Board monitoring of Ends and Executive Limitations requires CEO monitoring reports that provide clear interpretations, rationales and data. This workshop will help CEO's – and boards – make sense of it all.	Building Psychological Ownership (and Investment) Psychological ownership is what your organization needs if it is to sustain itself over the long-term. What does it look like, how can you encourage it and how can you keep it?	All About the Money – Financial Training for Board Members If you are looking to learn more about how to understand your organization's finances – this highly engaging session is for you.
11:00-11:20	Break

11:20-12:40 (choice from three sessions)	Monitoring and Evaluation – The Board Perspective There are many ways to monitor and evaluate your board’s performance. However you do it now, and especially if you don’t do it now, this is a great opportunity to look at the pro’s and con’s of a wide variety of options.	The UN Goals for Sustainable Development For the goals to be reached, everyone needs to do their part: governments, the private sector, civil society and people like you. This is your chance to find out more.	Becoming an IPGA Certified Policy Governance Professional (PGP) An opportunity to hear from the 2016/17 class about their experience and learn about the 2017/18 program
12:40-1:40	Lunch including IPGA update and awards presentation
1:50-3:10	The Implementation Journey What does it look like - from being introduced to Policy Governance concepts, to full-scale implementation and continuing practice? What are the highs and lows to expect along the way and how will you manage them for best long-term results?	Let’s Get Together – an introduction to tools for large-scale discussion Good ownership linkage often requires seeking to get a lot of information from a lot of people in a form that the board can understand and use to shape its organization’s future. In this workshop you will learn about a wide range of tools and approaches for creating in-person and virtual connections that produce the goods.	Going Out of Business – when is it the right thing to do and how to do it? No organization should exist to exist. Sustainability is not about sustaining your organization it is about sustaining your organization’s vision – and sometimes there comes a moment when your organization is no longer that vehicle, or your vision is no longer relevant. How will you know when that moment has come and what will you do about it?
3:10-3:30	Break
3:30-4:00	Presentation on what’s been going on in IPGA’s hubs this year and a chance to think about the networks that could support your continued learning.
4:00-5:00	Keynote Address: Keeping your leadership light bright by Drew Dougherty of LeadershipDNA, Leadership Consultant and Executive Coach Whether you are a Board member, a CEO or a Board support, you need to develop and sustain your individual leadership in service of your organization – you need to be able to govern yourself - and to do so in concert with others. This lively session will have you connecting with the source of your leadership and knowing how to keep it burning bright.
5:00-5:15	Conference wrap up with Conference Chair and Chair of the International Young Governance Professionals
5:15-6:45	Closing reception - drinks and canapés

Register online here.

Regular Registration Rate: $225 USD (February 1 - April 30)

Late Registration Rate: $250 USD (May 1 - May 31)

*Pricing includes all meals and evening receptions

Twitter: @YoungGovPros

Website: www.iygp-summit.com